Made to Serve

I thought it often in my first year as a mother, when I was every day discovering what this new life of parenthood looked and felt like: doing anything with kids is a hundred times harder than doing it without kids. But it's a thousand times better.

From eating dinner to going to Mass to taking a walk around the block — every single outing, even the simplest ones, had an extra level of logistical complexity. I had to bring diapers and food and extra clothes, I had to be ready to distract, to comfort, to settle, to de-escalate. Before, I just showed up, did the thing and went home. Now, I had to be ready to coordinate.

I had to be ready to serve.

But even while everything had become so much more complicated, so much harder, there was suddenly a joyfulness to these experiences that had not been there before. Yes, I was a mom now, a servant if there ever was one, constantly tending to someone else's needs, and it was difficult. Sometimes terribly so. But it was beautiful (not in a physical way — I was usually covered in baby spit-up — but my soul had that glow, you know?).

It was the first time in my life that I really understood what it was to serve, and the power of that vocation to which we are all called.

This isn't just true of parenthood. It's true of every relationship. When we find someone we can meaningfully, wholeheartedly serve — our spouse, our best friend, our employees, our students, our patients, whoever it is — the effort becomes nothing compared to the joy and the fulfillment we find in the work.

We were made for greatness, and Christ tells us that to be great is to serve. So don't be afraid of greatness. Don't be afraid to serve.

- Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that?

Catholic Life Explained

Question:

Is Halloween a pagan holiday or a Catholic one?

Answer:

The short answer: nowadays, a little bit of both. But it wasn't always that way. Halloween and All Saints' Day are closely connected. In the 800s, the Catholic Church began celebrating All Saints' Day. It was originally called All Hallows' Day or Hallowmas. The celebration began early on All Hallows' Eve. But if Halloween is really about the saints in all their victorious glory, where do we get haunted houses, costumes, and pranks?

All Saints' Day became associated with the other deceased rather quickly. November 2nd is All Souls Day, where we pray for the souls in purgatory. Throughout the European world, especially with the Celtic and Germanic peoples, the dead were honored in the autumn months. The Celtic pagan celebration of Samhain had its own folk rituals and occurred around the same time as these Catholic feast days.

Within the last few hundred years, this included dressing in disguise and going door to door, asking for food in exchange for a rhyme or poem. Some people masqueraded as "dark" spirits and pulled pranks on others. Today's celebration of Halloween tends to take on these later practices, rather than the original meaning of celebrating the saints. But remember ... this feast was Catholic first!

Our Missionary Legacy

World Mission Sunday is a special day that unites Catholics worldwide in prayer, solidarity, and support for the Church's mission efforts.

This year's theme, chosen by Pope Francis, is rooted in the Gospel of Matthew: "Go and Invite Everyone to the Banquet," reflecting the inclusive and urgent call to bring God's love to everyone. Join us in this universal mission to spread the Gospel and invite all to experience the joy of Christ's message!

The Church in the United States was once mission territory, supported by the generosity of Catholics worldwide. Today, we continue this legacy by supporting the Pontifical Mission Societies, ensuring that the Gospel reaches the ends of the earth. Our contributions help build and sustain communities of faith in places where the Church is still growing or facing persecution. This mission is a testament to our faith in action, reflecting the universal call to share Christ's love.

This weekend we'll have a second collection at all three parishes in support of World Mission Sunday.

Coordinator of Religious Education

SS. Peter & Paul Parish, Kiel, is seeking a passionate candidate who loves the Catholic Faith and desires to pass that Faith on to the next generation. This part time position will be responsible for overseeing the religious formation efforts of approximately 120 children and youth at SS. Peter & Paul Parish. The coordinator will work closely with the pastor, parents, volunteers, and other staff members to develop and implement programs and activities that help young people grow in their relationship with God and the Catholic Church. Please contact the office for more information 920-894-3553.

Thank You

Thank you everyone for your generous donations to The Crossing! Your donation was about $2,000 in pantry items. You are helping so many families and we could not do this without the support from people like you. Thank you! Have a blessed week.

Krystal at The Crossing

Pumpkin Walk

On Saturday, October 26 grab a cup of warm apple cider and some fall snacks being sold by Divine Savior School and take a stroll along the Kiel River Walk trail from the gazebo to the foot bridge behind the library and view the amazing carved creations! Or get in on the fun and carve a pumpkin! When dropping off pumpkins, be sure to sign the sheet provided to be entered to win door prizes. If possible, please have a candle inside your pumpkin for easier lighting.

Feast of All Saints

On Friday, November 1, we celebrate the Feast of All Saints. This is a Holy Day of Obligation within our Catholic faith. We will celebrate the feast on:

Thursday, October 31, 6:30 pm – Holy Rosary

Friday, November 1, 8:30 am – Ss. Peter & Paul with the Divine Savior students

Adult Faith Opportunity

Hearing God. . . How to know when God is speaking. How do I listen & respond? Join us at Good Shepherd Church (lower level) on November 14 at 6:30 for a presentation by Mark Preissner on Hearing God. Food & refreshments will be available.

Radiating Joy: The Michelle Duppong Story

In Theaters November 12 — One Night Only! Join audiences nationwide for a one-night-only theatrical release of Radiating Joy, a heartwarming documentary film about the life of Michelle Duppong. A former FOCUS missionary, Michelle's story of unwavering faith and joy in the face of a courageous battle with cancer is a powerful reminder of the peace that comes from trusting in God's plan. Her journey invites us all to reflect on the power of faith that comes from living for Christ. Gather your friends, family, and parish community for an uplifting evening at the movies. Don't miss this opportunity to see a truly remarkable story of faith and love on the big screen at Sheboygan's Marcus Theater at 7 pm.

Men of Christ

All men are welcome to join us for That Man is You Fall 2024 Sessions. On Saturday, October 26 from 7:30—9 am in the Mary, Queen of Peace room at Holy Rosary we will discuss Word-Witness Walk.

40 Days for Life

Some think abortion should be allowed if pregnancy occurs as a result of rape or incest. But does the value of a human life depend on the circumstances of conception? Is the mother's trauma from the violence of rape erased by a second violent act—abortion?

Rape is a crime and the man should be punished. The woman is a victim and deserves love and compassion. If the man is convicted, he does not receive the death sentence. So why should an innocent unborn baby be given the death sentence for the crime of his or her father? Every human being, regardless of the circumstances of conception, is made in God's image and deserves protection from conception until natural death. The fall 40 Days for Life campaign continues through November 3. Visit www.40daysforlife.com/sheboygan to sign up for vigil hours from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Mass of Remembrance

We will remember in a special way those who have passed away within the last year during the regular Sunday liturgy on November 3 at 10 am. Those from our parish will receive a letter inviting them to this mass, and all parishioners are welcome to join us.

Mass Intentions

Each year you may offer Mass Intentions for deceased loved ones, living family members, or celebrations such as anniversaries or birthdays. Mass intentions for week-day [Tuesdays] Masses in 2025 are now being accepted. Please email Kim at secretary@sspeterpaul.org, call her at 894-3553, or stop in the SS. Peter & Paul office to schedule your intentions.

Memorial Scroll

Traditionally in the Catholic faith, November is considered the month of Poor Souls. During this time, we pray especially for those in our families who have died. We pray that they may now enjoy eternal happiness with God in heaven. During the month of November we would like to remember in a special way those from our parish who have died since November 2023. If you lost a loved one this past year and would like their name included on the scroll, even if they were not a member of our parish, please provide the name to Kim in the parish office by October 25. The memorial scroll will be up for all of November.

Ministries

When we gather together to celebrate Eucharist and you serve a ministry, you are the hands of Jesus. Thank you to everyone who regularly goes to Sign Up Genius to sign up for their ministries. Kim is now setting that up, so if you go on Sign Up Genius and search using an email, use secretary@sspeterpaul.org. God's blessings are shared through His gifts and your gift of ministry-as an usher, a server, a lector, a greeter, or a Eucharistic minister-helps make our parish welcoming.

Adoration/Exposition of the Eucharist

Thomas Merton was once asked, "What is the best thing I can do to improve my prayer life?" His answer was simple: "Take the time." Whatever you do for your prayer life, the most important thing is to commit to it.

Come spend an hour before the Blessed Sacrament. From 4—5 pm on Mondays at Ss. Peter & Paul [and Wednesdays at Holy Rosary and Fridays at St. Ann] the church will be open for you to come, sit in silence and spend time in prayer. All are invited and welcome.

Cemetery Walk & Rosary

Thanks to those who braved the weather last Sunday and were part of our cemetery walk & rosary. We can be anywhere to pray . . . "For where two or three are gathered together in my name, I am there among them".

Cemetery Notice

Just a Reminder – as of November 1, you are required to have all your spring/summer decorations removed from the cemetery if you wish to keep them. If the floral arrangements or other type of decorations remain after November 1, they will be removed by cemetery maintenance personnel. Thank you for helping us maintain a clean and respectful looking cemetery for your loved ones.

St. Ann will commemorate all who have passed away within the last year at our Memorial Mass on Sunday, November 3, at 8 am. All are invited to attend and pray not only for the deceased, but also for their families.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

St. Ann Parish Fall Dinner

St. Ann's annual Fall Dinner will be held on Sunday, November 10th. It will be a drive-thru event from 10:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. We will be serving Beef Tips and Ham with all the fixings, including dessert for $15. Raffle tickets are also available, and can be purchased by contacting a parish member.

Help is needed on Thursday and Saturday morning for food prep, and Sunday for the dinner. Food donations are being accepted. Sign-up sheets are in the back of church in the main entrance for help and food donations.

We are asking everyone to sign up for desserts this year. Each year we have been preparing and selling more dinners than the year before, and this year we will need 40+ desserts. A sign-up will help us know how many pans of desserts will be available. Cash/Check donations will be accepted to offset the cost of the dinner. If you wish to donate, please put it

The Rosary

The month of October is dedicated to the Holy Rosary. Try to pray the Rosary every day at home. If you miss a day, don't give up, start again the next day. It will help you understand the power of prayer, intercession, and God's love.

In October the Rosary will be prayed before mass at 7:30 am on Sunday and 8:00 am on Thursdays.
