Mini Reflection: The journey of the magi would have been treacherous and uncomfortable. Imagine the peace in their hearts as they approached the young Messiah and fell to their knees. The new, vibrant awareness of what their own purpose was. It was an epiphany for them. It can be the same for us.

The Answer

Have you ever had an epiphany?

I'll confess that I've never spent much time reflecting on the term "epiphany." In my head, there has always been a strict separation of church and state when it comes to this word. I think of the religious feast of the Epiphany, when we celebrate the magi's encounter with the Christ Child, as totally distinct from our modern understanding of the ancient Greek word epipháneia, which means "manifestation" or "appearance."

"I've had an epiphany," I have said many times before, and what I mean is that I have come to a long-awaited realization. I have received the answer to a question which has perplexed me, perhaps troubled me. I now know what course of action I must take.

"Today is the Epiphany," I say to my children when we make a king cake and bring the little magi figures to our Nativity beneath the Christmas tree (which will, after today, be put back into storage, for the Christmas season has come to its fulfillment).

And I've always thought I meant I was saying two very different things.

But today, I ponder the journey of the magi, one that must have often been treacherous and uncomfortable. I think about their meeting with Herod, a situation that certainly was fraught with tension and fear. And I imagine the feeling in their hearts as they approached the young Messiah and fell to their knees. I think of the peace they must have felt. The new, vibrant awareness of what their own purpose was.

It was an epiphany for them — a discovery of truth. An answer.

It should be the same for us.

— Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that?

Catholic Life Explained

Question:

Besides the Wise Men, what is significant about the Epiphany?

Answer:

Epiphany means "manifestation," or public display. The feast is usually celebrated January 6. In the US, it is celebrated on the Sunday nearest to January 6. It originates from a story unique to Matthew (2:1-12). Magi from the East come to offer homage to the newborn King, presenting him with gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

This part of Matthew's infancy narrative differs from Luke's account of the birth of Jesus. In Luke there are no Magi, star, nor gifts. Luke has Jesus being born in a stable after Mary and Joseph's long travel from Nazareth to Bethlehem. Matthew seems to have the family living in a house in Bethlehem, where the Magi find them.

Why these differences? They stem from the needs and concerns of the audience the authors were addressing, as well as the theological stance of each author. Knowing the original intention helps get at the correct interpretation of the text.

Since Matthew was writing primarily to a Jewish community, his concern was to show that Jesus did not come just for Jews, but for Gentiles as well. From his very birth, Jesus not only manifests himself to Jews, but also to Gentiles, who are prominently included in the manifestation, symbolized by the Magi and their journey. This is the most significant aspect of the feast of Epiphany. How do you manifest Jesus to all with whom you come into contact?

Seminarian Spiritual Adoption

While thankful for a seminarian's desire to intimately serve Christ and his Church, his journey to ordination can be filled with struggles, uncertainty, and hesitation. With the help of the Holy Spirit, the Blessed Mother's powerful intercession and the affirmation and prayers of a dedicated family or individual, the discernor will receive the grace needed to continue their journey. There are 24 seminarians in our diocese; we would like to ask our parishioners to help us implement the Seminarian Adoption Program.

It is not a big commitment, i.e. pray for them, occasionally send them a card and/or an email supporting them as they are on their journey. Maybe a care package if that is something you would like to do.

We plan to begin this program in January 2025, so please prayerfully consider taking part in supporting our Seminarians. More information on this program will be coming in the next weeks.

Lectors – Proclaimers of the Word

Do you like to read stories aloud? We would invite you to become a lector at your parish. Reading is one way to publicly witness to our Faith in answer to our Baptismal call. The lector proclaims the first and second readings of the Mass during the weekend Eucharistic Celebrations and Holy Days. What a great honor and distinction to be called to proclaim His Word! You are not merely a reader, you are a Proclaimer of His Word! There are resources available for you. Please contact your parish office to join.

Food to Go!

We have now packaged just over 4140 combined lunch and breakfast 'Food-to-Go' bags. No matter the type of involvement that everyone has taken in this effort to share God's blessings with the community, this mission exists because of you and so many others. Thank you, and Happy New Year!

Want to help contribute? We accept monetary and actual food product donations in the parish offices. Here's a list of general items we put in the bags: most are single serve individually wrapped items: macaroni & cheese, mashed potatoes, canned soups & pastas, pudding cups, fruit cups, individual powdered drink mixes and cookies. Just be sure to label the donation as Food to Go.

Grief Support Group News

Our Grief Support Group meets once a month on the first Wednesday of each month at the Holy Rosary School, and we are completing a book study in which we read one chapter a month and share our responses at our monthly meetings. We have great discussions. The book we are completing this month (Dec) is by Dr Mary Neal called "7 Lessons From Heaven", and starting January 2025 our Grief Support Group is beginning a new book for our book study. Our new book "Imagine Heaven" written by John Burke promises to open ourselves to sharing and discovering more about ourselves and deepening our spiritual journey along with great discussions. Briefly, we'll read about "Near-Death Experiences, God's Promises, and the Exhilarating Future That Awaits Us. This is open to anyone who may have suffered the loss of a loved one. If you want to join us, please call the parish offices and register. You will need to purchase the book "Imagine Heaven", which Deacon Dennis has several copies which you can pickup the Holy Rosary Parish Office.

Can You Help?

Christmas decorations will be taken down on January 12th after the 10:00 Baptism of the Lord Mass. Have a few minutes to spare that day to help?

Christmas Meals

Tuesday's Christmas Eve holiday meal deliveries were again well received and appreciated. Badger's Den did another fantastic job with the food, and deliveries were successful with this special Mission service that so many individuals help provide to the community. We ended up with 134 meals being delivered, and some new drivers volunteering.

Thank you for opening your hearts and hands to others. Have a happy new year!

Thank you!

Our faith community is blessed with so many wonderful volunteers! Thank you so much to everyone that worked so hard to make the Advent Season and Christmas Masses so special! To the volunteers who helped decorate the church, to the musicians for their beautiful and prayerful music, which deepens our prayer, to the many ministry volunteers at our masses and to Fr. Amadi, Deacon Dennis & Deacon Pat for their devotion to the community. We pray that the New Year brings renewed energy to you!

Caroling Cheer

Thank you to the Faith Formation students & catechists who went caroling out into the community in December. You brought Christmas cheer to those you visited, and your presence was the best present of all.

Bringing it Back!

The Parish Council is looking for some people who would be interested in being part of a social committee at SS. Peter & Paul. They would like to bring some events to our parish that would allow people to socialize and get to know others. Not necessarily fundraisers, but all ideas are welcome. Think you might be interested? Talk to Guy Chollet, council chair. gchollet1957@gmail.com

Give a Gift to your Spirit

Waiting patiently is not a talent many of us have. Our tendency is to fill the waiting with all kinds of things to help us forget that we are waiting. Sometimes activity is good, but it can also be a distraction that keeps us from being present to God. When you find yourself in a situation calling for you to wait, consider embracing this quiet, sometimes uncomfortable space. The saying of Catholic sisters, "She also serves who sits and waits," reminds us that patient waiting can be a gift to our spirit and others.
