by Father Amadi

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

On September 3 we had our first school mass with the students and Teachers of Divine Savior School. It was a joy to see the kids and their teachers, and especially to welcome new students. When I visited each of the classrooms later that morning, to see how the first day of school is going, the positive energy, the good vibes and zest was palpable. The hugs received and high fives exchanged with the kids were particularly warm and joyful.

Our new principal, Mr. Anton Shircel, and all the teachers have worked so hard to prepare for a new school year. I am excited for our parishes to continue to work with them to support and sustain our cherished Divine Savior School. As I have said in the past, Divine Savior School is a daughter institution whose mother is our tri-parish faith community. We have every reason to look forward to a successful school year.

It seemed like yesterday, however, when the school kids and their teachers went for the summer vacation. Where has the time gone? Where did the summer go? Time, they say waits for nobody. I remember that when I was in grade school in Nigeria, one of the poems we had to memorize and recite each day, had these lines, “Tick, says the clock, tick, tick/ What you got to do, do quick.”

Even today, it reminds me that I do not literally have all day, and that time should not be wasted. What good I need to do, should be done today. What forgiveness do I need to offer, or peace made, should be done today – not tomorrow. A beautiful line from Psalm 90 expresses this prayer: “teach us to number our days aright, that we may gain wisdom of heart” (Ps. 90: 12).

The Tuesday of our first school mass was also the feast of St. Gregory the Great, who was a Pope and Doctor of the Church. He was a figure of great wisdom who taught the church’s faithful with his preaching, teaching and writing. He is considered one of the four Great Latin Doctors of the Church. He was the first to call himself, “Servant of the Servants of God,” a title still used to date by the Popes. The other three Latin doctors are Saints Augustine, Ambrose and Jerome. Did you know that a stain glass window was dedicated to each of these four doctors of the Church at Holy Rosary Church? It is worthwhile to see them. If anyone does, please take a selfie picture and send it to me via email at amadi@cua.edu.

St. Gregory used the time given to him by God, to make a difference in the Church and the world of his time. We are called to do the same.

Wishing you all every grace and blessing,
Fr. Alvan Amadi

Deacon's Deli

Have you ever thought about, or asked why a certain piece of Music is played at Holy Mass? Have you wondered why certain pieces of music is played at the various Liturgical Seasons throughout the Church Year. Have you wondered about the History of Music used during the Holy Mass? Why do we have music played and sung at Holy Mass in the first place? How are the Scripture Readings connected to the Liturgy, and what parts of the Holy Mass are they necessary? How do Funeral Masses and Wedding Masses play into our music selections? So many questions, and I suspect you may have more. Jim Fett is our Speaker for Deacons Deli on Thursday September 19 at Hilde's Deli & Bakery. Jim will share is gift music and liturgy with us, and in turn we can learn and sing along with him while we enjoy an evening of learning more about how Liturgical Music is so important to our Worship Experience. We'll see you at Deacons Deli on Thursday September 19 at 5:30 pm.

Faith Formation

Faith Formation classes should have started, but because we have not found a faith formation coordinator yet those classes are paused. If you are a current family please contact Kim (secretary@sspeterpaul.org) in the office to let us know you are interested in having your children in our Faith Formation program.

I realize it's hard to wait for answers about faith formation. We are in the process of finding a replacement and looking to keep things moving for all the students so they can have the opportunity to be in faith formation.

The diocese has assured me that our students nearing confirmation will get the preparation they need and get confirmed in November. We are also working with the diocese to come up with a plan for our own faith formation. We'll be having a parent meeting in the next few weeks to detail options we hope to have in place for everyone until we get a director. Watch for a letter in the mail.

The Faith Formation program by design relies on volunteers to make it work. In the last few years we've seen the number of volunteers decline. We are working with the diocese, but in the end it's our own parents that will have to step forward to lead the classes. Can we suggest you consider being a catechist to give of your time and talent? We have books and resources available.
