Deacon's Perspective

by Deacon Dennis Berrin

This weekend begins the Fourth Week of Advent, which is a short week because of Christmas Day three days later. Our time of preparation is nearly over, and we begin our celebration for the Christ Child. In our Gospel we see Mary who was traveling to the hill country in haste to visit her cousin Elizabeth who is pregnant. I always marvel at Mary's visit and conversation with the Angel Gabriel in which she learned that she was highly favored by God; because Gabriel said "Hail favored one! The Lord is with you." Can you imagine what this encounter looked and felt like? It's hard to fully comprehend. I know we've heard this story many times, but it's so spell binding, in how a simple, young girl, probably 15 years old was told she was going to bear the "Son of God" in her womb. Think about this!

On my desk is a reproduction of a print by Fra Angelico called 'The Annunciation', and this particular print has a unique aspect that has captivated my soul. In this painting we see the Angel Gabriel bowing in deep reverence to Mary (Our Blessed Mother) who is seated on a bench. What I find so unique is what Fra Angelico included with this painting; he inserted the words between what Gabriel said to Mary (small letters), and Mary's response to Gabriel which is backwards and upside down. So in other words, Fra Angelico's interpretation of Mary saying "how can this be, since I have no relations with a man" has her completely flummoxed. Yet, she had the capacity to say, "May it be done to me, according to your word." The Church calls this in which Mary gave her response as her "Fiat"?

"Fiat" means "yes" in the context of the Catholic Faith, when referring to the Virgin Mary's response to the Angel Gabriel where she says: "let it be done to me according to your word." "Fiat" is a Latin word meaning "let it be done."

When I saw this picture the first time, I understood in a rudimentary way, on a human level, what Mary's yes or rather her "fiat" really meant. So when the Angel Gabriel and our Blessed Mother had their encounter which was an intense mystical experience, we hear from a 15-year girl say "May it be done to me according to your word." We know that the Holy Spirit 'Overshadowed' Mary, and that the Creator of all things visible and invisible, that which cannot be contained, is now incarnated and contained in Mary's womb.

Whenever there is an encounter with the God of the Universe, whether in the Eucharist, the Word, those who we encounter each day, God is calling us, and sending us out on Mission, and He is waiting for our 'Fiat'. The question always comes down to saying 'Yes' or as Mary said; may it be done to me according to your word. Mary didn't just say 'Yes' because any yes, can easily become a 'No'. She submitted to the Will of God without hesitation, and then she went to the hill country to visit her cousin Elizabeth who was also pregnant.

In the writings from Louisa Piccarreta Jesus said, "True seriousness is found in religion, and true religion consists in looking at one's neighbor in God, and at God in one's neighbor." (Book 4, November 1, 1902). I pray your Advent is leading you to a greater encounter with the Living God, and that you incarnate Jesus Christ in all that you do, and all that you say. And like Our Blessed Mother, be unafraid to look at your neighbor in God, and at God in your neighbor. I pray you have a Blessed and Holy Christmas Season!

Joy to the World, The Lord Has Come!

May the blessings, the joy and the amazement of the Incarnation – God coming to earth! – be with you and your loved ones during this Christmas season and throughout the coming year! Let us raise the roof with praise! Glory to God in the highest!!

Mary, the Holy Mother of God

The Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God, a holyday, will be celebrated on Wednesday, January 1, with Mass times/locations as follows: Tuesday, Dec. 31, 6:30 p.m. (Ss. Peter & Paul) Wednesday, Jan. 1, 8:30 a.m. (St. Ann) All are welcome and invited to come pray and thank God for the gift of Mary in our lives and in the life of the Church.

Double Bulletin

This is a double bulletin for the weekends of December 22 and December 29. With Christmas falling in the middle of the week, the offices are closed December 24 & 25, and the SSPP office is also closed December 26. The ministry schedules are for Christmas and both weekends.

Lectors – Proclaimers of the Word

Do you like to read stories aloud? We would invite you to become a lector at your parish. Reading is one way to publicly witness to our Faith in answer to our Baptismal call. The lector proclaims the first and second readings of the Mass during the weekend Eucharistic Celebrations and Holy Days. What a great honor and distinction to be called to proclaim His Word! You are not merely a reader, you are a Proclaimer of His Word! There are resources available for you. Please contact your parish office to join.

Retirement Second Collection

Thank you to all who gave generously last weekend through the Retirement Collection. If you still wish to donate to Share in the Care of our retired sisters, brothers and religious order priests, as well as our own diocesan priests, you may use one of your envelopes labeled Retired Collection and drop it in the collection. On behalf of them, thank you for your generous care!

Grief Support Group News

Our Grief Support Group meets once a month on the first Wednesday of each month at the Holy Rosary School, and we are completing a book study in which we read one chapter a month and share our responses at our monthly meetings. We have great discussions. The book we are completing this month (Dec) is by Dr Mary Neal called “7 Lessons From Heaven”, and starting January 2025 our Grief Support Group is beginning a new book for our book study. Our new book “Imagine Heaven” written by John Burke promises to open ourselves to sharing and discovering more about ourselves and deepening our spiritual journey along with great discussions. Briefly, we’ll read about “Near-Death Experiences, God’s Promises, and the Exhilarating Future That Awaits Us. This is open to anyone who may have suffered the loss of a loved one. If you want to join us, please call the parish offices and register. You will need to purchase the book “Imagine Heaven”, which Deacon Dennis has several copies which you can pickup the Holy Rosary Parish Office.

SS. Peter & Paul is Still Hiring!

Come join our team! SS. Peter & Paul is in search of a Coordinator of Religious Education. We’re seeking a passionate candidate who loves the Catholic Faith and desires to pass that Faith on to the next generation. This part time position will be responsible for overseeing the religious formation efforts of approximately 100 children and youth at SS. Peter & Paul Parish. The coordinator will work closely with the pastor, parents, volunteers, and other staff members to develop and implement programs and activities that help young people grow in their relationship with God and the Catholic Church. Please contact the office for more information 920-894-3553.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR CONTRIBUTIONS!

Many Thanks!

Thank you to the Knights of Columbus for hosting the brat fry on November 23. It was very well attended, and we appreciate all you did to make it a great success! Just a note of "Thanks" to the Knights of Columbus for the great float that was in the New Holstein Christmas Parade for Holy Rosary. And a special "Thank You" to our choir for singing so beautifully during the parade and after at the community center. We appreciate all of you for your dedication to Holy Rosary Church.

Holy Rosary Parish Needs Your Time & Talent

We are in need of more lectors for Mass, especially when we change to the Sunday 10:00 AM Mass this spring. Please prayerfully consider volunteering for this ministry. Training and resources will be provided. We are also in need of helpers to setup at parish events. Please consider giving just a little of your time to help our parish community and have fun with your parish friends doing it. If you are interested in these areas or any others, please contact Lynn at the parish office or fill our and return the parish ministry volunteer form.
