words on The Word

by Father Amadi

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Each November, the Church reminds us to invoke the saints and to especially pray for the faithful departed. During the first weekend of November, we remember in a special way our parishioners who have died in the last year. We call out their names and prayerfully light a candle for each of them. We entrust them to God's Mercy as we affirm our faith in the resurrection of the body and life everlasting. In the Eucharist, this hope for heaven and everlasting life with God is nourished. In a moving account on the death of his own mother, St Augustine reflects beautifully on these spiritual themes. I am pleased to share part of his story taken from his book, "The Confessions."

In the Lord, Fr. Alvan Amadi

From the Confessions of Saint Augustine, bishop

The day was now approaching when my mother Monica would depart from this life; you knew that day, Lord, though we did not. She and I happened to be standing by ourselves at a window that overlooked the garden in the courtyard of the house. At the time we were in Ostia on the Tiber. We had gone there after a long and wearisome journey to get away from the noisy crowd, and to rest and prepare for our sea voyage. I believe that you, Lord, caused all this to happen in your own mysterious ways. And so the two of us, all alone, were enjoying a very pleasant conversation, forgetting the past and pushing on to what is ahead. We were asking one another in the presence of the Truth—for you are the Truth—what it would be like to share the eternal life enjoyed by the saints, which eye has not seen, nor ear heard, which has not even entered into the heart of man. We desired with all our hearts to drink from the streams of your heavenly fountain, the fountain of life.

That was the substance of our talk, though not the exact words. But you know, O Lord, that in the course of our conversation that day, the world and its pleasures lost all their attraction for us. My mother said: "Son, as far as I am concerned, nothing in this life now gives me any pleasure. I do not know why I am still here, since I have no further hopes in this world. I did have one reason for wanting to live a little longer: to see you become a Catholic Christian before I died. God has lavished his gifts on me in that respect, for I know that you have even renounced earthly happiness to be his servant. So what am I doing here?"

I do not really remember how I answered her. Shortly, within five days or thereabouts, she fell sick with a fever. Then one day during the course of her illness she became unconscious and for a while she was unaware of her surroundings. My brother and I rushed to her side but she regained consciousness quickly. She looked at us as we stood there and asked in a puzzled voice: "Where was I?"

We were overwhelmed with grief, but she held her gaze steadily upon us and spoke further: "Here you shall bury your mother." I remained silent as I held back my tears. However, my brother haltingly expressed his hope that she might not die in a strange country but in her own land, since her end would be happier there. When she heard this, her face was filled with anxiety, and she reproached him with a glance because he had entertained such earthly thoughts. Then she looked at me and spoke: "Look what he is saying." Thereupon she said to both of us: "Bury my body wherever you will; let not care of it cause you any concern. One thing only I ask you, that you remember me at the altar of the Lord wherever you may be." Once our mother had expressed this desire as best she could, she fell silent as the pain of her illness increased.

Confirmation

On Wednesday, November 6 students from our three linked parishes, along with students from neighboring parishes, will be receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation at Good Shepherd in Chilton. This great group of young adults have been preparing with the help of some amazing catechists and sponsors and are ready for the next step in their faith journey. Please keep them in your prayers!

Christmas Cheer

All three parishes are accepting donations of new toys/ gifts for children, preteen and teenagers to be given to families during our Christmas Cheer giveaway program. Containers are located in the main entrances/Narthex of the church. The gifts should be new, unwrapped, and valued at between $10-30. We can also use books, games and puzzles. The Christmas Cheer Program is implemented through the St. Vincent de Paul Society of Kiel and recipient families are from the Kiel/New Holstein and surrounding area. Accepting donations through November 29. For the last several years, this program worked with approximately 200 children ages 0—18. In addition to the donated toys/ gifts, the SVdP Society spent almost $12,000 in food and merchandise gift cards for the program. We help 80 families each year. Your support is so important. Thank you and God Bless.

SS. Peter & Paul is Still Hiring!

Come join our team! SS. Peter & Paul is in search of a Coordinator of Religious Education. We're seeking a passionate candidate who loves the Catholic Faith and desires to pass that Faith on to the next generation. This part time position will be responsible for overseeing the religious formation efforts of approximately 120 children and youth at SS. Peter & Paul Parish. The coordinator will work closely with the pastor, parents, volunteers, and other staff members to develop and implement programs and activities that help young people grow in their relationship with God and the Catholic Church. Please contact the office for more information 920-894-3553.

Radiating Joy: The Michelle Duppong Story

In Theaters November 12 — One Night Only! Join audiences nationwide for a one-night-only theatrical release of Radiating Joy, a heartwarming documentary film about the life of Michelle Duppong. A former FOCUS missionary, Michelle's story of unwavering faith and joy in the face of a courageous battle with cancer is a powerful reminder of the peace that comes from trusting in God's plan. Her journey invites us all to reflect on the power of faith that comes from living for Christ. Gather your friends, family, and parish community for an uplifting evening at the movies. Don't miss this opportunity to see a truly remarkable story of faith and love on the big screen at Sheboygan's Marcus Theater at 7 pm.

40 Days for Life

Today, Sunday, November 3, is the last day of this fall's 40 Days for Life campaign. Join us for a Closing Rally at 6 p.m. at the vigil site (the sidewalk along 909 S. Taylor Drive and New Jersey Avenue, Sheboygan). Bring your candles, flashlights or lanterns and we'll pray silently and as a group as we close out the final hour of Day 40. Thank you to all who participated in defense of the dignity and sanctity of human life.

Remember, Planned Parenthood is open year round. We will continue to pray outside their facility during the hours they are open. M & TH 9-5, and W 10-6. Sign up on the same website by accessing the 365 calendar. www.40daysforlife.com/sheboygan. Contact Germaine 920-918-2310 if you have questions.

Abide in Him

Please join us as we share with you highlight videos and reflections from the National Eucharistic Congress we attended this summer. We will be sharing our experiences one evening a month for the next several months. A light snack and water will be served. See the flyer in this bulletin for more details. We can't wait to see you there!

God Bless, Dave and Sherry Winkel, Jeff and Leslie Schuette, Deacon Randy and Patti Jaeckels

Men of Christ

All men are welcome to join us for That Man is You Fall 2024 Sessions. On Saturday, November 9 from 7:30—9 am in the Mary, Queen of Peace room at Holy Rosary we will discuss The Kingdom of Comfort.

Prayer and Worship

Prayer and Worship committee members please note the November meeting is on Wednesday, Nov. 13 at SS. Peter & Paul at 5:30. The November calendar had November 5 & 13 listed, but we'll only meet once.

Adult Faith Opportunity

Hearing God. . . How to know when God is speaking. How do I listen & respond? Join us at Good Shepherd Church (lower level) on November 14 at 6:30 for a presentation by Mark Preissner on Hearing God. Food & refreshments will be available.

Christmas Tour

St. Thomas the Aquinas, Elkhart Lake, is sponsoring Daddy D's eighteenth Christmas show at the Riverside Ballroom, Green Bay, on Thursday, December 19.

Please call Judy Kraus 920-547-8883, for more information or to reserve a spot. They are booking through November 10.

Annual Meeting

Ss. Peter & Paul will be hosting its Annual Meeting on Sunday, November 10, 2024 after the 10 am Mass in the lower level of church. All are invited to come and hear about the last year of our parish and bring any questions or comments you may have for parish leadership. A light brunch will be served.

Collection for the Food Pantry

Instead of a collection at our Thanksgiving Mass, for the entire month of November we will be collecting non-perishable food items and paper product for the Kiel Community Pantry, Rays of Hope. You can bring your items with you to church anytime during the month and place them in the baskets at the side entrances and in the narthex.

Book of Remembrance

As is our custom in the month of November, we remember our loved ones who have passed on to the Kingdom of God. Our Book of Remembrance will be located at the front of church. Feel free to include any names you would like remembered in prayer. The book will remain near the altar during the rest of Mass, allowing the community to hold our loved ones in prayer.

Thanksgiving Meals

SS. Peter & Paul is teaming up with Badger's Den to offer a simple, prepackaged Thanksgiving meal to anyone, at no charge. If you feel that you, a family member, a friend, or a neighbor would enjoy a meal, for any reason at all, please give the Rectory a call (920-894-3553). Meals will be delivered, just not sure of date or time yet.

New Pictures

We've updated the parish center, where students meet for Religious Education and meetings are held, with some new artwork. There's 3 new pieces, from $100 to $140. Interested in sponsoring a picture in memory of a loved one or just because? Contact Kim in the office.
